

HUNGER GAMES

Zeina ElSaid period 2

1 similarities

Themes: The Novel and the Film both include with oppression, control and survival. Including manipulation by the Capitol

Characters: The Main characters are Katniss, Peeta and Gale are in the novel and film with same relationship and personalities.

The Games: The movie clearly shows the real life dangers and emotional pressure of the Hunger Games while staying faithful to the book's plot and violence.

2 Similarities

Setting: The description of Panem and its districts in both the novel and the movie is similarly detailed. The conflicts between the wealth of the capital and the terrible realities of the districts are highlighted in both versions.

1 differences

Character Details: In the film Prim gives Katniss the mockingjay pin, Madge Undersee who gives Katniss the mockingjay pin in the book. The makeup and the costumes will show better in the movie

Plot: The movie focuses the plot around the reaping and the games and simplify Katniss's mental struggles in order to move the plot forward more quickly.

2 differences

Perspective: The film shifts by taking a third person view while the book shifts by saying it in the first person from Katniss side

Ending: More reflection from Katniss is provided at the novel's conclusion, mostly in respect to her relationship with Peeta and her doubts on the Capitol. The movie mostly concentrates on building the follow up and making certain narrative decisions that transform people's views of Katniss's character.

Thank You