

THE HUNGER GAMES

Movie vs book

By: Yahia Aboulenein

COMPLETE COLLECTION

Differences: actions

Mockingjay: In the book Katniss receives the mockingjay pin from Madge. However in the movie she receives the mockingjay from an old woman named Greasy Sae.

“I go back to my room to collect a few things and find there’s nothing to take but the mockingjay pin Madge gave me”
(Collins 354)

Differences : perspective

First-Person vs. Third-Person: The book is in the first person from Katniss' perspective, providing a deep insight into her thoughts and feelings. The movie uses a third-person perspective, allowing viewers to see scenes that Katniss is not present in.

THE
HUNGER GAMES

A person is shown from the chest up, aiming a bow in a lush green forest. The person is wearing a brown jacket over a dark shirt. The background is filled with vibrant green foliage and trees. The text is overlaid on the upper left portion of the image.

Similarities: plot

Even though the movie and book may have their differences, they are also similar in a way.

A way they are similar is how in both the book and movie the Hunger Games is about a dystopian society where people compete in televised matches to the death also known as the Hunger Games

“the competitors must fight to the death. The last tribute standing wins.” (Collins 17)

Similarities: location

Both the book and movie take place in the dystopia of district 12. Where there is a wealthy capitol and districts that live in corruption and poverty. The scenes in the movie align with the things we read in the book.

"District Twelve. Where you can starve to death in safety," (Collins 12)

