SIMILARITIES

SIMILARITIES?

- The plot of the movie doesn't change between both the movie and the book
- There are some events that are the same as like the book and the movie, for example the training or the reaping day
- While we read through the book and watch the movie, we see motive is the same, for example her bravery or sorrowness and her love for her family

PART TWO

PART TWO

- In the movie and the book, we see how they portray the capitol as a tool of manipulation making them think that its a tv show but it is a game of death and survival

- Both the movie with their similar events also have similar characters, for example the main character is still katniss and other side characters such as rue, petra, her mother and prim.

- The book and the movie both show the realities of the hunger games and katniss's life, it is horrible, and shoes how they live in pure poverty

DIFFERENCES

DIFFERENCES?

1. The film has different imagery and types of clothing and makeup
2. The film ends in a well-oriented kind while the book turns into a darker, deeper meaning that fully affects katniss
3. The film shows all of the capitol's peoples their beautiful and exotic clothing showing how the capitol is truly rich and controlling, where the book only gives certain hints making the reader's mind run loose.

PART TWO

1. The movie is third person whilst in the movie it is fully first person and about katniss
2. The movie fully explains and shows katniss's fears and overthinking mindset while the book explores less of her making the reader confused or not interested.
3. The movie shows the beautiful capitol with great detail while the book doesn't display and only relies on descriptions
