ESSAY

Explain how the relationship between the town and the university of Chapel Hill changed over time. Use at least two details from the account to support your explanation.

It changed by the population growing more and more, but also it has been expanding each time. One detail is, "In 1875, the university started to expand and soon there were course offerings in a broader range of disciplines." Another detail is "In 1932, the University of North Carolina was consolidated, or joined together, which meant the three campuses would now offer different kinds of programs." These details will help explain that the university was expanding for more people to feel welcome.
