Similarities

book: “I volunteer!” “I volunteer as a tribute”(page 22)

“Come on, everybody! Let's give a big round of applause to our newest tribute!”(page 23) But no one clapped.

Instead the crowd touched the three middle fingers of their left hand to their lips and holds it out.

Movie:

She volunteered to be a tribute so her sister stays safe.

When Effie Trinket was telling everyone to clap no one did so they could respect Katniss and they raised 3 middle fingers out.

Similarities

Relationship:

They both contain relationships, which highlights themes of love, loyalty, and sacrifice. Including the relationships between Katniss and Prim, Katniss and Gale, and Katniss and Peeta.

Symbolism:

The mockingjay symbol is in both the novel and the movie; it represents rebellion and hope.

Difference

Visual Setting:

The film shows the violence of the Hunger Games in a more intense way.

The film uses effects to show that the Arena looks more exciting giving Katniss challenged more than the novel.

Perspective:

In the book it's written in Katniss point of view. But in the movie they use voice overs or places that Katniss wouldn't know about which explains what is happening behind every scene.

Difference

Appearance:

- In the book Katniss and Gale are described as having olive skin and black hair. In the movie they're both light skinned and have brunette hair.
- In the book Katniss says her eyes are grey but in the film its blue.
- In the book Peeta is described that he has blue eyes but in the movie his eyes are brown.

Mockingjay Pin

In the book the mockingjay pin was given to katniss by madge. In the movie Madge did not appear at all and Greasy Sae gave the pin to Katniss. She later gives the pin to prim but prim gives it back to Katniss while saying goodbye and this pin will protect you.
